'Grandma's Kitchen'

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The theme for the 2012 Orangeville Fair is Grandma's Kitchen. This takes us back to the time when the kitchen was the center of family life and, it still is now for some of us. Farm kitchens were especially busy, and that is what we are all about at an agricultural fair in Dufferin County. Just watch the inventive minds run with this theme.

Labour Day weekend is our weekend for good fun, great exhibitors and vendors, a variety of food and, of course, the wonderful variety of livestock that keeps this fair true to its roots and traditions. Some things change, and we try to provide entertainment that combines the tried and true with the new and innovative. This will be the third year for 'Family Day' on Labour Day Monday, with reduced admission and attractions for young and old. Our fair is great value and entertainment for the whole family.

It takes a lot of work to put on the fair. We want to thank our members, our sponsoring partners and our volunteers for all their efforts. You make it happen. So, invite all your friends and family; pray for good weather; and show this community how creative you are by displaying your skills again in 2012.

A Message from the Senior Ambassador

As the Senior Ambassador I have been very privileged and honoured to attend many events and meet many inspiring people.

This title has allowed me the pleasure of attending not only the Orangeville Fair, but also many local fairs such as the Erin Fair where, along with other ambassadors, I got to decorate cakes. I've also had the pleasure of joining the District #5 meeting with fellow ambassadors, in which we learned the tasks of an ambassador and listened in on an amazing seminar.

In February I was very excited to attend the OAAS Convention at the Royal York Hotel. Here I met ambassadors from all over Ontario. I am still looking forward to the Agri-Food Education Day as well as the CNE Competition in August.

I have had an amazing year so far with still lots more fun to come. The ambassador program is an amazing opportunity in which I have gained a lot of experience and knowledge.

I encourage everyone to compete this year in the competition!

Sincerely
Deborah Walsom

Message from Junior Ambassador

Welcome Friends! It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 158th Orangeville Fall Fair!

It has been an honour to represent Orangeville Agricultural Society as this year's Junior Fair Ambassador. I am also very excited to be representing the Orangeville Agricultural Society as your Junior Fair Ambassador for the 2012/2013 year.

I have been to many events so far this year. I went to the District #5 fall meeting back in November, I also helped out in the Candy Cane Fair at Headwaters Hospital, which was an amazing opportunity. In December, I attended the Dufferin County 4-H Achievement Night. I also participated in the Santa Clause Parade, and the Tractor Parade of Lights. They were both very cold but they were absolutely fantastic.

I am excited to be attending many more events in Orangeville such as the Maple Syrup Festival, Blues and Jazz Festival, Founders Fair, the Market On Broadway and, of course our fair.

I look forward to seeing you at our fair and hearing memories, from your "Grandma's Kitchen".

Sincerely

Holly Bus

The society reserves the right to reduce the prize money by 50% or combine classes where there are fewer than 24 animals registered per breed or class.

5. In the case of bad or unfavorable weather, or other reasons, causing the receipts to fall short of paying expenses and all prizes in full; 'after paying' can be adopted, as any deductions will fall proportionately on all those participating in the amounts collected, and not leave the whole sum to be a debt to bear heavily on the Society and thus impair its usefulness.

PROTESTS

1. Any person lodging a protest must make it in writing. It must be delivered to the Secretary during the Fair, if possible. It must plainly state the cause of the complaint or appeal, and be accompanied by deposit of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars cash. This sum will be forfeited to the Society if the protest is not sustained. The onus of proof shall rest with the protesting party. The Board of Directors, however, earnestly hopes that persons will not enter a protest without the strongest grounds for so doing, as much annoyance and unpleasantness is often occasioned by protests of a frivolous nature. The Board of Directors reserves the right of final decision on disputed cases and will deal with the protest immediately following the Fall Fair.

THE SOCIETY'S LIABILITY & CONTROL

1. While the O.A.S. Directors take every precaution under the circumstances to secure the safety of all persons, animals or articles sent to the exhibition, the owners themselves must take the risk of exhibiting, and should any person, animal or article be accidentally injured, lost or stolen, the Directors will give every assistance in their power toward recovery, but they will not make any payment for the value thereof.

2. The Board of Directors reserves the right to debar any entry from exhibiting, and upon such action, or in the event of any entry being disqualified from winning a prize by the decision of the committee, the exhibitor shall accept such decision as final without recourse.

LIVESTOCK EXHIBITOR CODE OF CONDUCT

The Orangeville Fair is committed to responsible animal care and treatment. This Code of Conduct outlines what is expected of livestock exhibitors in the handling of all animals involved with our Fair.

There will be no tolerance for any mistreatment of animals. Any unacceptable exhibitor conduct will be subject to action including possible elimination from the competition and / or exhibit, at the discretion of the Society

The

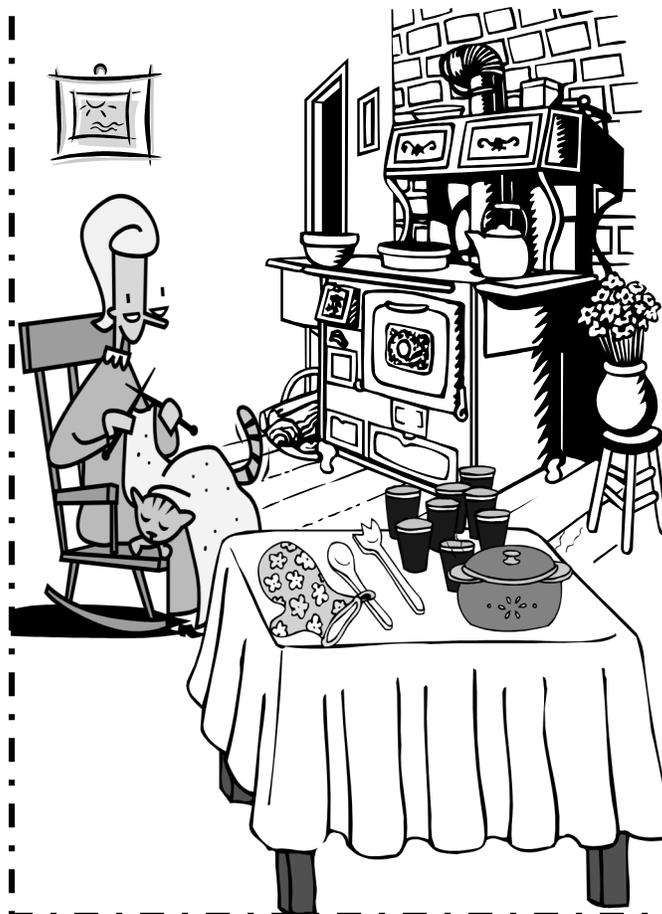

ANTIQUÉ DISPLAY COMMITTEE

We hope that you enjoy this look back to a time we all have fond memories of.

Perhaps it was the fudge in the cupboard, the fresh baking and the pot of stew simmering on the stove when she knew you were going to visit.

Maybe it was the handknit sweaters and mittens that kept you warm in the winter.

Whatever your memory we hope it is a good one!
