

PROTESTS

Any person lodging a protest must make it in writing. It must be delivered to the Secretary during the Fair, if possible. It must plainly state the cause of the complaint or appeal and be accompanied by deposit of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars cash.

This sum will be forfeited to the Society if the protest is not sustained. The onus of proof shall rest with the protesting party. The Board of Directors, however, earnestly hopes that persons will not enter a protest without the strongest grounds for so doing, as much annoyance and unpleasantness is often occasioned by protests of a frivolous nature. The Board of Directors reserves the right of final decision on disputed cases and will deal with the protest immediately following The Fall Fair.

THE SOCIETY'S LIABILITY & CONTROL

1. While the O.A.S. Directors take every precaution under the circumstances to secure the safety of all persons, animals or articles sent to the exhibition, the owners themselves must take the risk of exhibiting, and should any person, animal or article be accidentally injured, lost or stolen, the Directors will give every assistance in their power toward recovery, but they will not make any payment for the value thereof.

2. The Board of Directors reserves the right to debar any entry from exhibiting, and upon such action, or in the event of any entry being disqualified from winning a prize by the decision of the committee, the exhibitor shall accept such decision as final without recourse.

LIVESTOCK EXHIBITOR CODE OF CONDUCT

The Orangeville Fair is committed to responsible animal care and treatment.

This Code of Conduct outlines what is expected of livestock exhibitors in the handling of all animals involved with our Fair.

There will be no tolerance for any mistreatment of animals. Any unacceptable exhibitor conduct will be subject to action including possible elimination from the competition and / or exhibit, at the discretion of the Society.
